

Northcentral University

Hello %%First_Name%%,

It's been a while since we spoke, so I wanted to follow up with you about enrolling at NCU. The good news is that at NCU, with weekly course starts, you'll never miss an opportunity to start gaining a premier education.

Premier Accreditation

The University is regionally accredited by the WASC Senior College and University Commission (WSCUC)*, the same commission that accredits other prestigious universities in the U.S. Our MBA programs consist of 10 to 11 courses (depending on your undergraduate degree), each lasting eight weeks.

100% Online

Designed for self-starters like you.

With NCU's online learning model, there are weekly starts for every program or course. You can start your program as early as next week.

One-to-One Learning Model 1:1

We use a unique one-to-one learning model that pairs one student with one doctoral professor for each course. With no teaching assistants, you learn directly from experts who provide personal feedback and professional insights.

Flexibility

Tailored to Busy Professionals

At NCU, you will never have to participate in group projects. You move forward at your pace, by setting your own studying schedule. In a class size of one, there's no one to get in the way of your individual success.

We would love to tell you more about student successes at NCU and help you complete the enrollment process. Please contact us at the number below or chat with us online.

Imagine Yourself at a Higher Degree.

NCU utilizes a one-to-one learning model—one student is paired with one professor in each course—to create a more personalized, individual experience for students enhanced by their professors' real-world experience. NCU professors all hold doctoral degrees, and none of our programs have residency requirements, allowing access to students no matter where they live.
